WASHINGTON, DC September 12, 2016 – Capitol Movement, Inc. (CMI), an 11-year-old non-profit dance organization, today announces they have partnered with Bobby Dacones offering members of the DMV community an opportunity to try a master class with the celebrity choreographer. It kicks off with an advanced intermediate hip hop class on September 30, 2016, at 6:30PM at Sport & Health, 315 G Street, SE, Washington DC.

The next day, October 1, 2016, Capitol Movement, partnered with the DC Commission on the Arts and Humanities, will host a FREE Hip Hop class at The Dance Loft on 14, giving young community members in need an opportunity to attend a class with Dacones. It also affords them the chance to meet and speak with the celebrity dancer/choreographer. CMI hopes to inspire DMV youth to pursue any dream they have, and if that dream is to dance, the organization will help these dreamers grow at the professional level.
