CAPITOL MOVEMENT PROJECT FUNDRAISER AT BLUE GIN

January 16 • Blue Gin

PHOTOS BY EDGAR BECERRA

THE EVENT: The fact that Blue Gin was overrun with Washington Redskins cheerleaders may have played a part in the successful silent auction. A mixture of dancers and philanthropists were certainly pumped up enough to contribute generously to aid the Capitol Movement Project. Guests from the Washington Ballet, the NFL Retired Players Association and the Washington Performing Arts Society enjoyed cocktails and hors d'oeuvres while bidding on items such as a Gilbert Arenas signed jersey and a Dolce & Gabbana Fashion Album. THE GUESTS: Washington Ballet Board President Kay Kendall, Tony Powell of Tony Powell/Music and Movement, Diana Adams, Septime Webre, and Jack Davies.
