CAPITOL MOVEMENT PROJECT PERFORMANCE AND CAST PARTY

Lincoln Theatre and Zentan

STEPPING UP. The historic Lincoln Theatre has seen its share of talented performers, but few could live up to the youth and energy exhibited by the dancers of Capitol Movement Project (CMP) at its fifth annual concert. The company, one of the metro area's most dynamic dance troupes, runs summer camps and after-school programs for local youth and raises money for scholarships at its annual talent showcase. Choreographer J. Kevin Aguilar once again shined with creatively coordinated routines, including crowd favorite "Black and Gold" and the audience-rousing finishing number "Funkier." CMP co-founder Stephanie Jojokian proved the show must go on by attending just two days after giving birth to her first child. After the show, festivities continued at Zentan, the chic late-night lounge and restaurant in the Donovan House.
